BROHIER, Peter

16 Jul 1950
14 Jun 2025

The late Peter Neville Brohier was born in Burnie Tasmania on 16 July 1950. Peter attended Pulteney Grammar for High School. The school repeated Ephesians 6 daily, "We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers". This made a big impression on his career. He studied accountancy at the RMIT and was awarded top marks for the state of Victoria in 1978. He completed a Bachelor of Law degree in 1985 and ran a successful law practice till he retired to get involved in politics. He was successful in getting funding for passengers cars travelling on the Princess of Tasmania. He cultivated a huge retinue of friends and will be sorely missed. Peter died in Melbourne on the 14th June 2025
